

The Princess Culture Statement

This Culture Statement outlines our company's expectations for how we treat one another while working at The Princess. All cast members, production staff members, paid staff, volunteers, and musicians are asked to review and follow these expectations and address any concerns with company or production leadership.

- We are welcoming and inclusive
- We value our staff, volunteers, and audience members
- We encourage questions and discussion
- We provide and accept constructive feedback at all levels
- We share our concerns directly and in a timely manner
- We provide an outlet for creative passions and a place to exercise professional experience in an amateur setting
- We encourage the development of new skills
- We have clear and communicated processes with flexibility for feedback and improvement
- We are respectful of participants' time
- We operate with integrity at all levels
- We have well-defined responsibilities with room for collaboration
- We speak and treat one another with respect and kindness
- We respect each other's physical boundaries
